Impact KY Youth Camp 2014 Rules!

1. No camper or worker will be permitted in a dorm occupied by the opposite sex at any time. Workers are permitted at the beginning and the end of camp to help with moving and cleaning, but only if they are accompanied by the dorm's counselor.
2. There will be absolutely no hugging, kissing, or any other displays of affection between campers. Holding hands is permitted as long as it is appropriate.
3. At night time, campers must stay in well lighted areas. If you are instructed by a worker to move, then you must do as you are told.
4. No camper is allowed outside of their dorm after lights out. Anyone caught outside after lights out will be dealt with accordingly.
5. All campers must report to services, as well as class at the appropriate times.
6. Girls: No halter tops, no spaghetti straps, no mid-drift shirts. Racer backs may be worn as long as undergarments are not showing. Shorts must be at least 3-4 inches from the knee. These rules also apply to night services as well. Bathing suits may not be worn to and from the pool area. You must change in the pool area. On water days, white t-shirts are not permitted in the activities areas. When packing your clothes please be aware that you are attending a church camp so pack accordingly. If you are asked to change, you must do as you're told, or be dealt with accordingly. Boys: Shirts must be worn at all times. Please no sagging, we do not want to see your underwear. Sleeveless and athletic shirts are permitted during the day, but they are not permitted at service. Shirts must be worn to and from the pool area; you may not simply wear a towel. No t-shirts that are vulgar, or that have profanity written on them will be permitted. If you are asked to change, then you must do so.
7. Absolutely no weapons, drugs, alcohol, or tobacco products are allowed on the property. This is a serious offense. You will be sent home.
8. Absolutely no toys, magazines, or other items that may be stolen or possibly hurt someone will be permitted on the campground.
9. No personal computers/I-pads/tablets are permitted. Cell phones are okay, but we as the KY District are not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged phones. We recommend that if you must bring your phone, then you should leave it with your counselor. You will not be permitted to play on your phone throughout the day. Absolutely no pornography. If you are caught looking up inappropriate material or sexting on your phone, you will be sent home immediately.
10. All campers are required to participate in daily activities. You will be provided with personal down time as well.
11. No fighting and absolutely no destruction of property. Please be respectful.

If you are instructed by a director or counselor to do something please be respectful and do so. Anyone who does not follow these rules may be subject to being sent home. Parents/guardians will be responsible for their child getting home, and will not receive a refund. Please observe these rules. They are in place to ensure a safe camp environment that not only allows us to have fun, but allows us to be Christian examples by the way we conduct ourselves.

Camp Item List

(What should I bring to camp?)

You will need the following items:

1. Bedding supplies. The mattresses are twin size. If you choose to bring a sleeping bag, that is okay as well.
2. Towels for both showers and pool time, towels will not be provided.
3. There will be four services throughout the week, so you must bring four nicer outfits. (Nice shorts and a nice shirt are ok, as well as jeans are okay, just wear what you would normally wear to youth service. Youth Pastors help me out on this.)
4. Toiletries, (e.g. toothbrush deodorant, etc.)
5. One nice outfit for the banquet.
6. Bibles
7. Bring money for concessions, as well as merchandise (e.g. shirts, notebooks, promotional items) There will be an account service provided for juniors, but seniors will be responsible for their own money. If you lose your money, will the KY District is not responsible, so please keep up with it. I strongly recommend at least $25-30 in concession money for the week.
8. Pack enough clothes for all activities, and make sure you have enough just in case some clothes get dirty. We will be having a water day, so make sure you have clothes that you don't mind getting dirty.
9. Any medications that the camper may be taking.
10. Swimwear

"We hope this list is helpful, and we are looking forward to seeing you at camp."
